

Contents

List of Figures

Acknowledgements

Notes on Contributors

Introduction: Colonial to Postcolonial Masculinities in the Middle East and North Africa

Mohja Kahf

1. Exotic and Benighted, or Modern yet Victimized? The Modern Predicament of the Arab Queer
Jedidiah Anderson
2. Of Heroes and Men: The Crisis of Masculinity in the Post-Oslo Palestinian Narrative
Amal Amireh
3. “I get to deflower at least one. It’s my right!”: the Precariousness of Hegemonic Masculinity in Rashid Al-Daif’s Who’s Afraid of Meryl Streep?
Nadine Sinno
4. Crises of Masculinity in Huda Barakat’s War Literature
Kifah Hanna
5. Mahfouz, al-Mutanabbi, and the Canon: Poetics of Deviance from the Masculine Nationalist Discourse of al-Sukkariya
Robert James Farley
6. Diasporic Queer Arabs in Europe and North America: Sexual Citizenship and Narratives of Inclusion and Exclusion

Nicole Fares

7. Of Knives, Mustaches, and Headgears: The Fall of the Qabaday in Zakariya Tamir's

Latest Works

Alessandro Columbu

8. Romancing Middle Eastern Men in North and South America: Two Mid-Century Texts

John Tofik Karam

9. Tough Guys, Martyrs, Dandies, and Marginalized Men: Changing Masculine Roles in

Iranian Cinema

Kaveh Bassiri

10. Men and Modernity in Postcolonial Tunisian Cinema

Nouri Gana

11. Constructions of Masculinity in Palestinian Film

Sarah Hudson

12. Gendered Politics in Late Nineteenth-Century Egyptian Nationalist Discourse

Matthew B. Parnell

13. Men at Work: The Politics of Professional Pride in Ottoman Beirut

Kathryn Kalemkerian

14. "You Are Like A Virus": Dangerous Bodies and Military Medical Authority in Turkey

Oyman Basaran

15. Gendered Memories and Masculinities: Kurdish Peshmerga on the Anfal Campaign in

Iraq

Andrea Fischer-Tahir

16. Militarist Masculinity, Militarist Femininity: A Gendered Analysis of Jordan's War on the Islamic State

Ebtihal Mahadeen