

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Notes on Transliteration	xvii
Introduction	1
Randa Aboubakar, Sarah Jurkiewicz, Hicham Ait-Mansour, and Ulrike Freitag
Part I: Rethinking Participation in Formal and Informal Spaces
1. Protests as a Space for Contentious Politics and Political Learning among Youth in Morocco: The Case of Mohamed V Avenue in Rabat	33
Hicham Ait-Mansour
2. The Concept of Participation in Cairo's Unplanned Areas	49
Azzurra Sarnataro
3. Interstitial Spaces and Controlled Participation: The Youth Center of Hay Mohammadi during the Years of Lead in Morocco	63
Yasmine Berriane

4. Participation in Spaces of Exile: The Making of Change in a Palestinian Refugee Camp in the West Bank 83
Dorota Wóroniecka-Krzyżanowska

Part II: Reconfiguring Space through Contestation

5. The Challenge of Reconstructing Public Space:
The Case of Mohamed V Avenue 105
Mokhtar El Harras and Youness Benmouro
6. The Muslim Brotherhood and the Creation of Spectacles in Nasr City 125
Mai Ayyad
7. Topographies of the Discourse of Resistance in the Public Sphere: A Case Study of the Activists of the February 20 Movement 141
Mouloud Amghar

Part III: Alternative Spaces of Cultural Production

8. Mock Translation as Sociopolitical Commentary in the Egyptian Digital Sphere 163
Randa Aboubakr
9. Spaces of Culture in Casablanca: Isles of Creativity in an Often-hostile Ocean 185
Fadma Ait Mous
10. Citizen Collectives in Post-2011 Egypt:
Contestation Mechanisms 205
Mona Khalil

Part IV: Space Reclamation and Cultural Activism

11. Cultural Heterotopias and the Making of the Political 227
Yazid Anani
12. Genius Loci: The Spirit of the Place 247
Renad Shqeirrat
13. Culturepreneurship and Reclaiming Urban Space
in Kuwait City 265
Sarah Jurkiewicz