

Contents

Editors' Introduction	ix
Author's Preface	xi
Technical Notes	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
Abbreviations	xix
One Continuity and Reinvention
Succession and Innovation	1
Earning the "Crown of Exile"	2
The Church in a "New World Order"	4
Relationships with Rulers	6
A Sacred Geography	11
Two Patient Sufferers
Coming to the End-Time?	15
Bearing Trials Patiently	16
The Account of John the Deacon	18
Patriarchs and Martyrdom	21
Patriarchs and Sainthood	25
Three Crisis of Cohesion
Satan Hinders, but God Prevails	27
Patriarchs and Political Authority in 'Abbasid Egypt	28
Trials from Without	31
Trials from Within	35

	A Crisis of Cohesion?	37
	A Battered Church	37
	Ignorance and Heresy	37
	Conversion	38
	Hanging On	40
	Embattled Saints	41
Four	Saints and Sinners
	Bishop Michael's Account: Warts and All	43
	Before the Fatimids	44
	Simony: "The Word of God Became as a Merchandise"	46
	Contrapuntal Saintliness	47
	Unexpected Saintliness	52
	Saints and Sinners	56
Five	Transitions
	Language Shift, Lay Concerns, and Ecclesiastical History	59
	Arabic as a Christian Language?	59
	Mawhub: A Historian between Two Worlds	61
	Ibn al-Qulzumi: A Critic of Patriarchs	66
	Gabriel II ibn Turayk: An Attempt at Reform	67
	Introduction: New Sources	67
	Strange Religiosity, Ready Conversion	68
	Linguistic In/competence	71
	Opposition to Reform	74
	After the Reform Attempt	76
	How to Choose a Patriarch	76
	Lay Concerns, Lay Leadership	77
	Tired Theology?	79
Six	Chaos and Glory
	A Strange Period	83
	Chroniclers	84
	The Person at the Center of the Story	85
	1216–1217: Attempts at Making a Pope	86
	The Monk Da'ud Becomes Pope Cyril, Successor of Saint Mark	88
	Cyril's Patriarchate	89
	A Failed "Great Man"? Or a Scholar among Scholars?	93

Seven	Marginalized Patriarchs
	Internal Rivalry, External Interference	97
	Scattered Portrayals, Incidental Mentions	100
	The Patriarch at the Center of the Story	105
Eight	A Burst of Holiness
	The Patriarch as Saint and Holy Man	107
	An Orchestra of Holiness? The Principals	110
	A Holy Monk: Marqus al-Antuni	110
	A Faithful Disciple: Ibrahim al-Fani	112
	An Independent Saint: Anba Ruways	112
	A Quartet and a Chorus?	114
Nine	Humility in Action
	After the Fireworks	119
	“Listless” and “Lacking in Blessing”?	120
	Diplomacy and Faithfulness	123
	Quiet Leadership in Difficult Times	125
	Epilogue: Survival	129
	Appendix: The Forty-Nine Martyrs during the Patriarchate of Matthew I (#87, 1378–1408)	133
	Works Cited: Primary Sources	135
	Works Cited: Secondary Sources	141
	Notes	157
	Index	215